PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Polychrome Earthenware Vase With Snake-shaped Handles - In The Nevers Style - H. 26 Cm

200 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Earthenware

Height : 26

Description

Polychrome earthenware vase with serpent handles - In the Nevers style - H. 26 cm
Charming decorative vase made of polychrome glazed earthenware, in a baluster shape, in the style of traditional Nevers earthenware.Resting on a circular, molded pedestal, this vase features a generously rounded body topped by a long, flared neck.It is particularly distinguished by its two handles shaped like intertwined snakes, modeled in relief, with green scales and heads accented in yellow and red.The piece is embellished with a rich, hand-painted floral design, consisting of stylized bouquets, foliage, and geometric motifs in a beautiful palette of cobalt blue, green, orange-yellow, and red.The lower section features a series of decorative friezes and scrollwork, highlighting the

Dealer

Tino antiquites

Mobilier

Mobile : 0763127955

11 rue de bel air à l'huis laurent

Dun les Places 58230

traditional inspiration behind this piece.This vase is a fine example of decorative earthenware inspired by antique styles, combining the whimsical design of its zoomorphic handles with rich polychromatic decoration.Characteristics:Proposed origin: France, in the style of Nevers earthenwarePeriod: 19th centuryMaterial: polychrome glazed earthenwareDecoration: floral bouquets, foliage, and geometric friezesHandles: two intertwined snakes in reliefHeight: 26 cmMarkings: inscriptions and symbols painted on the underside of the base, visible in the photographsCondition: Overall in fine decorative condition, with visible signs of use and wear, particularly on the footAn original and decorative piece that will naturally find its place in a collection of antique earthenware or a home with character.