Large Fish-shaped Soup Tureen In Green Slip - Vallauris - 20th Century

90 EUR

Signature : Vallauris

Period : 20th century

Condition : En l'etat

Material : Ceramic

Length : 60

Width : 26

Height : 32

Description

Large Fish-Shaped Soup Tureen in Green Slip - Vallauris - 20th Century Spectacular green-glazed ceramic soup tureen from Vallauris, depicting a large fish with finely detailed scales.This imposing piece consists of three elements: a large fish-shaped soup tureen body, a removable lid depicting the dorsal fin, and a matching serving platter.Beautifully executed naturalistic work with a particularly meticulous relief decoration: scales, fins, eyes, and a widely spread tail.The set features a magnificent green glaze with deep shades, ranging from soft green to emerald green.French piece from Vallauris, 20th century, in the tradition of decorative animal-themed ceramics.Incised mark beneath the display stand reading "Made in France."Some signs of wear and minor visible imperfections, particularly on

Dealer

Tino antiquites

Mobilier

Mobile : 0763127955

11 rue de bel air à l'huis laurent

Dun les Places 58230

the lid.An original and generously sized decorative piece, ideal for a collection of antique ceramics or slipware.Dimensions:Length: 60 cmWidth: 26 cmHeight: 32 cmOrigin: Vallauris, France.Period: 20th century.Material: green glazed ceramic.