Description

Louis XV Walnut Dresser - 18th Century
Beautiful 18th-century walnut dresser, featuring an elegant straight front with a single door of molded panels and harmoniously sculpted decoration. The upper section is embellished with delicate marquetry depicting branches and foliage, highlighted by a geometric frame. The overhanging cornice lends the piece a striking presence. The door is adorned with carved moldings, while the scalloped lower rail is enhanced with decorative inlaid motifs. The sides are paneled, and the interior features several shelves offering practical storage. A charming antique chest of drawers, captivating for the rich hues of its walnut and the delicacy of its decoration--ideal for lovers of 18th-century French furniture. Period: 18th century Style: Louis
