Description

Two small, lightweight, elegant side tables featuring the same veneer, the same shape, and the same dimensions, but differing in their fronts: one has three drawers, while the other has one drawer and, below it, a storage compartment that opens with two doors. They are perfect in a living room as side tables, in a bedroom as nightstands, or in an entryway to hold small items or a lamp. Exotic wood and mahogany marquetry. Dark wood inlay on the top, front, and sides. The back features a uniform veneer. They are designed to be displayed from all sides. Generally rectangular in shape with a slightly curved front, scalloped edges, and curved legs. Scalloped molding around the top surface, with bronze inlays in front of the front legs. Period: second half of the 19th century. Height: 75 cm, width:
