PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

"rambouillet" Dinner Service For 18 People With Soup Tureens - Jean Bertholle For Gien

6 500 EUR

Signature : Jean Bertholle pour Gien

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Earthenware

Description

Inspired by the world of hunting and the forest, the decoration features a variety of animal scenes including stags, deer, wild boar, pheasants, ducks, hares and other game, in a rich palette of autumnal tones.This 24-piece service for 18 people comprises:18 dinner plates, divided into six different designs, with three plates of each motif 4 large serving dishes: two decorated with deer, one with a stag and one with a wild boar2 covered tureens decorated with birdsThe pieces bear the marks of the Gien Manufactory on the reverse.Created in the 1950s, the Rambouillet pattern is closely associated with the world of the Rambouillet hunts and is one of the manufactory's most emblematic animal designs.In very good overall condition.Please note: a small chip to the reverse of one of the

Dealer

Galerie Cordeau-Oudoux
Collectibles and antique jewelry

la Rochelle 17000

deer-decorated platters, not visible from the decorated side when displayed, as well as a few superficial scratches to the decoration of the same platter.These details are visible in the photographs.Dimensions:Dinner plates: 26 cm diameterOval deer-decorated platters: 45 cm longRound stag-decorated platter: 34.5 cm diameterRound wild boar-decorated platter: 34.5 cm diameterTureens: 20.5 cm diameter