Description

A rare and refined pair of octagonal oil-on-canvas paintings depicting game trophies, created by an Italian master active between the late 17th and early 18th centuries.
The works are distinguished by their strong chiaroscuro contrast and the meticulous attention to detail in the rendering of the birds' plumage.
The paintings are housed in their original period octagonal frames, crafted from carved and gilded wood. The canvases have been relined at some point in the past and remain in good overall condition.
Period: 17th-18th century | Dimensions including frame: 65 cm x 50 cm
Dimensions of painting: 50 cm x 35 cm
