PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Small Mahogany Console Table, Louis XVI Period

1 250 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Mahogany

Width : 54,5

Height : 89

Depth : 29,5

Description

A charming little console table with a rectangular top, made of mahogany and mahogany veneer, decorated with gilded brass fillets and quarter-rounds forming geometric patterns, featuring a front drawer and resting on four fluted columns, joined by a white marble inlaid shelf, supported by four spindle legs (minor imperfections and wear).White marble top bordered by an openwork gilt brass molding (small hairline crack).Louis XVI period.Good condition.

Dealer

Cléry Antiques

18th century furnitures and fine art objects

Tel : 0689602398

Mobile : 06 89 60 23 98

86 rue de Cléry

Paris 75002