PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Naturalistic Bronze Birdbath From Vienna, Attributed To Franz Xaver Bergmann

230 EUR

Signature : Franz Xaver Bergmann

Period : 19th century

Condition : Parfait état

Length : dimensions sur l'annonce

Description

Naturalistic Viennese bronze penholder and trinket dish Attributed to Franz Xaver Bergmann Late 19th century A magnificent antique desk accessory made of chiseled and cold-painted bronze, crafted in the style of the famous Viennese workshops of the late 19th or early 20th century.The piece depicts a hollowed-out section of raw wood, faithfully rendered with details of bark and growth rings at the ends. Two birds with finely detailed plumage are delicately sculpted onto it. With its subject matter, the quality of its chiseling, and its nuanced patina, this piece exhibits all the characteristics of the work produced by the renowned Franz Xaver Bergmann Wien foundryArt Nouveau Late 19th centuryChiseled bronze with traces of original polychrome cold-paintingDimensions: 10 cm

Dealer

Dreamantic

DREAMANTIC Monsieur Corbice

Tel : 0611852842

Mobile : 0611852842 / 0033611852842

Fax : dreamantic1955@gmail.com

215 bis boulevard Albert 1er 33130 Bègles

Bégles 33130

long, weighing 350 grams In fine condition, with an authentic patina reflecting its age (see photos). Unsigned, attributed to the Bergmann workshops.Ideal for collectors of Viennese bronzes, enthusiasts of naturalistic curiosities, or to complement a period-style office decor.Careful and secure shipping with insurance, or in-person pickup available at the gallery.