Description

Small devotional case made of bone, decorated with carvings of two figures kneeling in prayer on either side of a cross. On the reverse, a nude female figure holding a vessel, evoking Eve and the Fall or the myth of Pandora. The object is hollow and sealed with a piece of cork at its base, serving as a pocket reliquary. 19th-century folk art. Dimensions: height 5.8 cm - width 4.5 cm - depth 3 cm. In good overall condition, with a lovely, natural, and soft patina. Note a small, old chip on the edge of the serrated base on one side.
