Pairs Of Major General's Epaulets From The First Empire

4 300 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Description

A pair of major general's epaulets that deviate from the Vendémiaire regulations.Body embroidered with gold thread, featuring three twisted cords known as "bouillons," three silver stars, and three layers of vertical bouillons.Underside made of national blue cloth with one repair and signs of wear from use.Locations of the through-buttonholes (damaged)Body width: 6.4 cm; total length: 15 cm; width: 16 cm.

Dealer

Les Collectionneurs d'exception
Antiquités
Mobile : 0680846185

112 quai de Bezons
Argenteuil 95100