Description

A lovely Art Nouveau vase decorated with red anemones by the Muller brothers in Lunéville.This design remains highly sought after for this beautiful vase, which is entirely acid-etched with a red anemone motif. Note the richness of colors--this intense red against an opaline background, with blue and yellow at the base. These vases, well known to collectors, do not all feature such a vivid array of colors. Beautiful ovoid shape with a small, open neck.In perfect condition, 19 cm tall, signed on the side, circa 1900A little gem of glassware, highly sought after in these beautiful colors.
