Silver Pocket Corkscrew - London, 1896

350 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Sterling silver

Length : 9.5 cm

Description

A pocket corkscrew made of substantial silver, richly decorated with flowers, foliage, and scrollwork in relief. The smooth central ring bears an engraved monogram.The screw-on silver case protects the gilded steel corkscrew blade when the corkscrew is closed. English silver hallmarks, London, date letter for 1896.Slight signs of use on the silver and partial wear on the gilding of the corkscrew blade, visible in the photographs.Length when closed: 9.5 cm.Total weight: 55 g.

Dealer

Art Classique
curiosités, art premier et Asiatique
Mobile : 0032-475272534

Bilzen 3740