Set Of Dishes With Floral Designs, Kangxi Period

1 300 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Porcelain

Diameter : 27,5 cm

Description

Set of 4 blue-and-white Chinese porcelain plates, decorated with floral motifs and dating from the Kangxi period (1662-1722); the decoration is arranged in Persian-style compartments, each adorned with floral motifs. 17th-18th century, circa 1690-1710, Jingdezhen, China. Dimensions: approx. 27.5 cm in diameter.Set of "blue-and-white" Chinese porcelain plates from the Kangxi period (1662-1722), decorated with eight Persian-inspired panels. The reverse side of the plates bears a mark consisting of a double circle enclosing a "Lingzhi" motif. The Lingzhi mushroom (the "plant with spiritual powers" or "mushroom of immortality") symbolizes success, longevity, and divine power.Provenance: Vanderven, 's-Hertogenbosch.

Dealer

Verkoulen Oriental & European Antiques

Antiques

Tel : +31

Mobile : 0622008502

Willem II Singel 44

Roermond 6041