Description

English School - Late 18th, early 19th century -
Portrait of an OfficerA very elegant portrait of a young officer in a red uniform, depicted from the waist up, wearing a powdered wig and a medal on his chest.English School, late 18th-early 19th century.An oval-shaped oil on canvas, meticulously and delicately painted, demonstrating great refinement in the rendering of the face and the details of the uniform.Presented in its elegant 19th-century gilt frame, this work possesses remarkable charm and presence.Ideal for a beautiful interior, this portrait will add a touch of timeless elegance. Once hung, it will give the distinct impression of having always belonged there, as if it had been part of the decor from the very beginning.A painting full of charm and distinction that I highly
