Description

A charming, finely carved, and highly ornate Renaissance-style cabinet or sideboard, featuring high-quality, period-appropriate motifs such as chimeras, sirens, and Renaissance-style plumes. The piece is composed of two sections--a smaller upper unit and a larger lower one--and includes four doors and two drawers. Beneath the upper lock, it bears the inscription "ASTIÈS 1879," likely the name of the sculptor or cabinetmaker. It is crafted from high-quality light-toned walnut. The piece is in excellent condition, boasts elegant proportions, and possesses a warm-toned patina. Please do not hesitate to contact us for further information. Delivery or shipping can be arranged upon request (quote provided).
