

Solid Silver Ewer And Basin

Description

Water jug and basin. The water jug stands on its shower-shaped base; the body is chiseled with rocaille motifs, reeds, and shells, and encircled by fluted moldings. The handle, openworked with leaf motifs, is topped by a mollusk. The hinged lid, engraved with rocaille motifs, features a coiled handle. The oval-shaped basin, edged with fillets, is engraved with rocaille motifs and curling foliage. The entire piece is engraved with the Seguin and Brémontier coats of arms beneath a count's crown. Silversmith: Bernard Vinsac. Toulouse, 1753 for the ewer and 1755 for the basin. Weight: 2,044 grs. Provenance: Seguin Collection.
