PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Turkish Knife

580 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Other

Length : 28cm

Description

We are selling this traditional Turkish knife from Bursa (the knife-making capital of Turkey), often called a çakisi or biçak.Made by the artisan REMZI, famous for having given one of his knives to Atatürk.The handle is finely crafted and carved with geometric patterns.Original leather sheath.A knife from the absolute golden age of the craft.Knife length: 28 cm.In perfect condition; note, however, that a small piece is missing from the sheath's fastener.

Dealer

Forezienne d'antiquités

Antiquaire généraliste

Mobile : 06 73 22 83 89

10 bis avenue de la libération

Montbrison 42600