Description

Art Deco earrings in platinum, 18K gold (750/1000), and old-cut diamonds, circa 1920. These dangling earrings in platinum, 18K white gold, and diamonds are very pretty. They are set with old-cut diamonds in a hinged setting that gives the piece a very light and airy feel. There are approximately two carats of diamonds in total.They sit well and are the perfect length for wearing both during the day and in the evening. Art Deco craftsmanship from the 1920s.The Alpa-style clasp is new for added security.
