Description

Oval box in Martin lacquer with a dog motif on a red background - 18th century
A charming little 18th-century oval box in Martin lacquer, with a red background, decorated with a dog resting on a cushion next to a piece of furniture covered with fringed fabric. The scene, surrounded by a delicate floral border, evokes the fanciful designs and taste for compositions inspired by antiquity or the Orient that were popular in the 18th century. The reverse features a small floral motif on a red background. The silver-plated metal frame is adorned with foliage and floral motifs. The interior features an antique mirror, surrounded by a guilloché decoration with radiating patterns. Condition: The object has been preserved in its original condition, without cleaning or restoration by Mapart. The varnish
