Description

Very large oil on canvas depicting "The Sisters of Psyche: The Result of Their Advice," with an inscription in the lower right corner and the signature "RAYNOLT." Circa 1930.A landscape painter, illustrator, and decorator, he was a student of Benjamin Constant and Jean Paul Laurens.A member of the Société des Artistes Français since 1905, he was awarded medals in 1897 and 1902 Psyche's two sisters advised her to take advantage of Cupid's sleep to discover his face, even though he had strictly forbidden her from seeing his true appearance. A drop of burning oil will wake Cupid, who, furious, will disappear forever.
