Description

A charming children's armchair made of woven rattan, a scaled-down version of the famous high-backed fan-shaped armchair known as the "Emmanuelle."Its wide, rounded backrest features an elegant openwork weave with diamond patterns, accented by a contrasting border. The wraparound armrests harmoniously extend its silhouette and frame a circular seat with a radiating weave.The hourglass-shaped base, composed of interwoven strands joined by a central ring, lends the piece a sense of lightness and character.A charming piece of miniature furniture, with balanced proportions and a beautiful light patina, ideal for a child's room or for displaying an antique doll.Dated to the mid-20th century, circa 1950-1960.In perfect condition. Beautiful antique
