Description

Large Louis XVI-style sideboard, made in the late 20th century. This piece features a mahogany-colored finish that gradually darkens to black, paired with gilded brass hardware and decorative moldings. The front features four doors and four drawers, with rounded corners and fluted columns between the various compartments. The sideboard rests on tapered, turned legs accented with gold details and is topped by a thick white marble slab with molded edges. Its design is inspired by late 18th-century French neoclassical furniture. Dimensions: 263 L x 55 D x 98 H
