Description

Elegant Roman glass bottle - Eastern production, Syria-Palestine, 3rd-4th centuries A beautiful ancient Roman bottle made of green blown glass, characteristic of Eastern productions--particularly those from Syria and Palestine--dating from the 3rd-4th centuries AD. It features a spherical, globular body, slightly concave at the base, ensuring good stability when standing upright. Its long, slender tubular neck gives the piece a harmonious and elegant silhouette, typical of Roman glassware from this period. With its shape and delicate hue, this piece attests to the craftsmanship of Roman glassmakers and is a beautiful collector's item, appealing to both enthusiasts of ancient glassware and collectors of archaeological artifacts. Height: 14 cm Condition: In perfect condition, with no flaws or
