French Art Deco Hexagonal Ring With Rose-cut Diamonds In 18k Gold And Platinum, Circa 1930

2 500 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Platinum

Description

Art Deco diamond ring in 18 karat gold and platinum. Antique ring with a hexagonal plaque, centering a 0.36 ct Dutch rose-cut diamond. The center is surrounded by ten Dutch rose-cut diamonds set in a radiating pattern. The shank is subtly decorated with two fine gadroons. Art Deco ring, circa 1930, France.French owl hallmark and mascaron hallmarkRing size: 55 EU or 7 US (resizable)Ring head height: 1.8 cm (0.71 in) - Width: 1 cm (0.39 in)Total diamond weight: 0.86 ct - Center diamond: 0.36 ctCondition: period setting, natural inclusions, and light surface scratches consistent with age and useWeight: 3.06 g

Dealer

Maison Mohs
Antique & Vintage jewelry

- sur rendez-vous -

Paris 75004