Description

Sèvres National Manufactory, based on a design by Jean-René Dembarré (1907-1968) White Sèvres porcelain vase, glazed in a fountain-shaped No. 2 design with a tubular body, featuring a polychrome decoration of a Mexican woman seated next to a basket of foliage and a palm tree. Cylindrical base and slightly conical, flared neck adorned with gilded bands. Engraved on the underside of the base is the number 47 33 PN See the photo, which shows the signature "BR" attributed to Jean Dembarré, as well as the date letter "H" (1935. Note that in Paul Midant's book published by Michel Avenile, page 128, there is a vase with a similar decoration but a different shape. There is also a vase in the Rulmann No. 1 form bearing the same decoration, held in the Mobilier National under inventory
