

Gift Set - Game Box And Its Napoleon III-era Tokens

280 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Rosewood

Length : 30,5 cm

Width : 23,5 cm

Height : 6 5 cm

Description

Gaming box and its tokens from the Napoleon III era Rosewood gaming box decorated with inlay and a central brass medallion The interior, made of light-colored wood (maple?), is lined with 12 compartments--some of which are removable--designed to hold chips of various sizes, made of ivory or bone (some of which are colored), and decks of cards (missing). A small booklet of rules for several games remains (poker, Manille, whist, piquet, etc...by B.P. Grimaud, Paris This box has its original brass hinges, lock, and key Everything is in working order Note: there are a few very minor scratches on the lid

Dealer

Antiquités Chantal Ceceille

Antiquaire généraliste

Tel : 06 08 68 86 78

Mobile : 06 89 30 77 95

21 Bd St Jacques

Beaune 21200