Description

Mahogany and Marble Sideboard - 19th Century
Elegant 19th-century mahogany sideboard, topped with a light, veined marble slab. Its front features a beautiful mahogany veneer with warm, expressive grain, framed by straight stiles and accented with fine moldings. It opens with a front door featuring a gilded metal lock plate. The interior offers practical storage space, enhanced by a middle shelf. The piece rests on a molded base that tapers to small, straight legs. The combination of mahogany with its beautiful hues and light-colored marble gives this piece an elegant presence and a timeless appeal. Its balanced proportions allow it to fit seamlessly into an entryway, living room, or bedroom, whether in a classic interior or a more contemporary setting. Period: 19th
