Description

A stunning, large glass goblet by Jade de Dauim set in a wrought-iron frame designed by Louis Majorelle. Two great artists collaborated on this very beautiful bowl, typical of the Art Deco period, featuring stunning, lustrous glass (known as "jade") into which gold flakes (shattered gold leaf) have been embedded. Note the beautiful bronze color with olive-green hues. The exquisite wrought-iron frame features cabochons and two gilded bronze handles that enhance the overall design. Undoubtedly one of the finest pieces bearing this illustrious dual signature... In perfect condition, 26 cm in diameter, 15 cm tall, double signature on the base, circa 1925. A superb piece of Art Deco glassware, beautiful in form and color, truly worthy of these great artists! Rare.
