Description

Large Empire-style soup tureen or oille pot made of Paris porcelain, oval in shape, with gilded decoration from the Louis Philippe/Napoleon III period (mid-19th century). The handles are decorated with palmette motifs, and the lid knob is shaped like a pinecone. There is some wear to the gilding, particularly on the base of the lid, but it is in fair condition. A small chip on the inside of the lid is also worth noting (see photo). Height: 30 cmWidth: 37 cmDepth: 20 cm
