Description

An elegant Napoleon III-era screen, made of gilded wood, in an eclectic style with Japanese and naturalistic influences, which was very much in vogue in 19th-century decorative arts.It features an openwork structure with turned posts and decorative elements framing a panel of black silk embroidered with a beautiful bird set amid a rich polychrome floral design. The piece as a whole offers a refined contrast between the gilding of the structure and the delicacy of the embroidery.The silk shows some slight signs of wear, visible in the photographs, which attest to its age.Period: Napoleon III, 19th century.Materials: gilded wood and embroidered silk panel.Dimensions:Height: 120.5 cmWidth: 73 cmDepth: 35 cmA beautiful antique decorative piece, ideal for adding a touch of charm and
