Description

An elegant set of three nesting rolling tables in gilded brass, in the Hollywood Regency style, dating from the 1950s-1960s. This set of nesting side tables features the high-quality craftsmanship characteristic of the renowned Baguès company.Each table rests on four tapered, fluted legs, topped with original, functional brass casters. The upper frames support removable clear glass tops, framed by delicate, openwork brass moldings featuring a lattice pattern. The main table is equipped with side handles and topped with decorative finials at the corners.The set is in good overall structural condition. The brass shows slight surface imperfections and a natural patina from use, which lend it its charm and attest to its authenticity and history. The glass pieces are in good condition.Dimensions:Large
