The Galerie Le Jardin Des Moines, specializing in sacred art antiques, objects, and decorative items from religious life, presents an impressive reliquary cross by Paperolles with nine relics--19th century. At the center of the cross sits a significant relic of Saint Francis Xavier, surrounded by the relics of Saints Fortuné and Boniface. At the foot of our cross lies a relic of Saint Agatha, followed by Saint Anne, above whom a Sacred Heart holds relics of Saint Ursula and Saints Martin and Benedict. Finally, a last relic, that of a Saint Confessor, dominates the entire composition; it is surrounded by a crown of petals. This devotional piece from a French convent dating from the late 18th century or early 19th century is in fine condition. Dimensions: 51 cm by 27 cm. Reference 675
