Description

A green-lacquered chandelier from the Napoleon III period.The interplay of contrasts is striking.All this is achieved through a bronze decoration on the finial, framed by acanthus leaves.The fluted branches highlight the beaded tulip in relief.The baluster, also fluted, enhances the finely chiseled bronze dome.The craftsmanship of the bronze artist, lacquerer, and glassmaker creates a beautiful harmony.Electrical system has been updated.Delivery available (not included in the price).
