Description

- Oil on canvas. Original canvas.- A living embodiment of "mambí" pride and "guajira" heritage, this portrait exudes the nobility of the Escambray, forged between the sweetness of sugarcane and the rich aroma of tobacco leaves. With a haughty gaze beneath a wide "guano" hat and a smoking pipe that seems an integral part of his demeanor, the figure transcends the picturesque genre to emerge as a true titan of ingenuity, like a Socrates of the "bohíos." His face, weathered by the elements and bathed in tropical light, embodies an age-old dignity and the profound folk wisdom of these Caribbean lands.- Dimensions of the artwork without frame: 30 x 40 cm / 38 x 48 cm with an exclusive, custom-made frame.
