Description

Art Deco Side TableA square table with rounded corners, made of oak, featuring sliding glass shelves concealed beneath the tabletopIt rests on thick legs shaped like modernist columns, set on distinct architectural bases arranged in tiersIt perfectly embodies the bold, geometric charm of interwar European design and serves as an extremely versatile side table. When fully folded, it serves as a compact square side table, but it transforms completely as soon as the four fan-shaped glass shelves are pulled out from under the tabletopThese four glass shelves can be pulled out individuallyIn good vintage condition with a weathered tabletop; any imperfections are consistent with its age and use60 cm wide and deep, 63.5 cm highThe shelves measure 55 cm wide and 31 cm deepInterwar design
