Description

Large terracotta group: two putti with a small dog, 95 cm Impressive Rococo-style sculpture, in the tradition of Goldscheider's Viennese terracottas. A standing boy, draped in flowing fabric, stretches his arm toward the sky. Beside him, a seated girl, wearing a braided crown, looks up with her little dog. The figures are modeled with vitality and finesse, and the warm brown patina lends the piece a rich appearance. Given its size, this piece serves as a true focal point in an interior, a foyer, or a winter garden. Material: terracotta with brown patina Height: 95 cm Markings: "Goldschieder" stamp on the back, initials incised on the front Period: 20th century Condition: good, small chips on the edges of the base and slight wear on the patina (see photos)
