émile Gallé - Nancy "rose Wild" - Multilayered Glass Vase, Ca. 1905-1908

11 700 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Glass

Description

ÉMILE GALLÉ - NANCY "Rose Wild " - Monumental multilayered glass vase, circa 1905-1908Monumental multilayered glass vase with a flared conical shape and a flowing neck, featuring a remarkable design of cascading maple leaves and samaras in shades of green, yellow, and white.The design stands out against a transparent background subtly etched with acid, in shades of yellow-green and pink-beige, creating an elegant contrast and highlighting the richness of the glasswork.Signed "Gallé"* in reserve within the design.Date: circa 1905-1908Height: 65 cm / 25.59 in.History This design, particularly well-suited to large vases, was created by Rose Wild (1872-1904), a collaborator of Émile Gallé. It was first produced in 1903 and continued to be made in various

Dealer

Samer's Club Antiquites
19th Century Antiques
Mobile : +971585692988

85 rue des rosiers, stand 76
Saint-Ouen 93400

forms after the master glassmaker's death.A monumental "Rose Wild" multilayer glass vase by Gallé - Nancy, circa 1905-1908. Conical, flared form with an undulating rim, decorated with cascading maple leaves and samaras in shades of green, yellow, and white, set against a transparent, partially acid-frosted background in yellow-green and pink-beige tones.Signed "Gallé" in reserve within the decoration.Height: 65 cm / 25.59 in.