Description

Large Haouz rug, hand-knotted by Berber women in the early 20th century in Morocco.Made of soft wool, hand-knotted to a width of 158 cm and a length of 317 cm.Add 15 cm for fringes in total.Those who follow me know that I have great admiration for the traditional Berber craftsmanship in rug-making.These women are the only ones who can make wool sing like this.Morocco is full of woolen gems.Here, there is a decorative artistry, a joyful weaving of patterns imbued with magic and hidden meaning, both in the field and in the borders.The illiteracy and isolation of these Berber women were expressed in the very silence of the carpet-weaving process through an abstract tribal iconography deeply rooted in their collective consciousness since time immemorial.These rugs
