Description

A charming Louis XVI-style sugar bowl made of solid silver, resting on a slender circular base. Its baluster-shaped body features simple, harmonious lines, enhanced by an elegant beaded frieze running along the entire upper rim.The two finely curved side handles provide an excellent grip while contributing to the piece's overall aesthetic balance. The domed lid is topped with a knob shaped like a stylized cluster of berries or a pinecone, adding a refined decorative touch typical of high-quality French silverwork.Very good condition.French work from the second half of the 20th century, Minerva hallmarkDimensions -Weight : 357 gramsHeight : 13.5 centimetersWidth, including handles : 13.35 centimetersBase diameter : 67.68 centimetersDiameter of the serving surface : 7.76
