Old Carved Wooden Walking Stick With Snake Decoration - Folk Art

180 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Material : Painted wood

Length : 92 cm

Description

A beautiful antique carved wooden walking stick, featuring a snake coiled in a spiral around the shaft. The carving appears to have been crafted from a single piece of wood, showcasing particularly compelling relief work. The shaft retains a naturally gnarled and slightly twisted appearance, with small, raised details reminiscent of buds. The snake features finely rendered scales, and its head is accented with paint, creating a striking contrast between brown and green tones. The rounded handle flows harmoniously from the slightly arched line of the cane. This is a characterful piece of folk art, combining woodworking craftsmanship with animal-themed ornamentation. Period: likely late 19th to the first half of the 20th century (to be confirmed). Dimensions: 92 cm in length.
