Hippolyte Heizler (1828-1871) Animal Sculpture In Bronze With A Brown Patina

980 EUR

Signature : Hippolyte Heizler

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Bronze

Length : 30 cm

Width : 14 cm

Height : 14 cm

Description

Bronze "Two Dogs in Front of a Hare" signed by Heizler (1828-1871) Hippolyte Heizler was the son of the sculptor Clément Bernard Hippolyte A student of Lequien, he regularly exhibited at the Paris Salons from 1846 to 1871 He collaborated anonymously on the decoration of the Louvre, the Tuileries, and the Paris Opera This sculpture depicts two basset hounds trying to flush out a hare hidden beneath the leaves It is signed on the base "Heizler" and "Sté des Bronzes" for the Société des Bronzes de Paris, a mark of a high-quality vintage edition Beautiful brown patina and in good condition This bronze is mounted on an oval-shaped, pinkish-beige marble base 30 cm x 16 cm x 2.5 cm

Dealer

Antiquités Chantal Ceceille

Antiquaire généraliste

Tel : 06 08 68 86 78

Mobile : 06 89 30 77 95

21 Bd St Jacques

Beaune 21200