19th-century Decorative Bronze Or Trim In The Empire Style, Featuring A Reclining Androgynous Yo

130 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Bronze

Description

A beautiful 19th-century ornamental bronze piece in the Empire-Directoire style.The piece features magnificent openwork and finely chiseled decoration depicting a young man with an androgynous profile, with short, curly hair styled in the classical manner. He is depicted languidly reclining on an entablature adorned with rosettes and holding a ribbon in his raised hand.Length: 28.5 cm.Height: 7.5 cm.Shipped with invoice--fast, careful, and highly secure.Shop with confidence: find our customer reviews by searching for "Antiquités Déquier" on Google.

Dealer

Antiquités Déquier

Généraliste

Mobile : 06 17 54 08 89

7 avenue du docteur Carrier

Saint-Marcellin 38160