Description

Dimensions: 48 x 32 cm - Height: 50 cm - Base diameter: 16.5 cm. This pair of vintage table lamps features monochrome ceramic bases in a vibrant turquoise blue, reminiscent of traditional Chinese baluster vases. Mounted on slender gilded metal bases, they are topped with beige, conical, and oval lampshades that cast a soft, warm glow. These Hollywood Regency-style lamps, typical of high-end pieces produced between the 1950s and 1970s, are reminiscent of designs by renowned studios such as Christopher Spitzmuller, or of lamps crafted from antique Asian vases.
