Description

Elegant and full of character, this remarkable bronze lamp with a polychrome patina depicts an old house with picturesque charm, richly adorned with architectural details and plant motifs. At its base, a figure seated near a lantern adds a narrative and poetic touch to the composition. The roofs, windows, foliage, and meticulously crafted details attest to the refinement of Viennese bronze sculpture. The piece bears the "B" mark within an urn, accompanied by the inscription "GESCH," characteristic of works associated with Franz Xaver Bergmann. A charming decorative piece that combines whimsy, craftsmanship, and elegance, ideal for a collection of antique bronzes or a home with character. Period: late 19th-early 20th century, to be confirmed. Signature/mark: "B" mark within an
