Description

Title: "Mariella," oil on panel. Antonio Cutino was born in New York on January 8, 1905. After moving to Palermo--his parents' hometown--he attended the Academy of Fine Arts and passed away in Palermo in 1984.In this work, Cutino depicts a half-length portrait of a woman, viewed in three-quarter profile. The woman wears an affable smile, framed by the vibrant red of her lips; her gaze is intense and attentive, while her brown hair is gathered in a polka-dot scarf.The background features various shades of gray, drawing attention to the gentle woman. The brushstrokes are skillful and subtle on the female figure, while they are more pronounced in the background.
