Description

- Oil on canvas. Original canvas. Hand-signed.-
In this captivating work by Léon Philippot, a rich palette of earthy browns and shaded greens immediately immerses us in the autumnal melancholy of a riverside scene, where the murmur of the water seems to take shape through a subtle interplay of light and shadow. The painterly style, deeply rooted in the tradition of realistic landscape painting, captures the materiality of the setting with meticulous sensitivity: from the damp stones of the small dam to the twisted roots emerging from the riverbank, and the slender tree trunks that punctuate the space and guide the eye toward the peaceful flow of the river. A dense, tangible atmosphere permeates every centimeter of the canvas; the viewer does not merely contemplate
