Imperial Russian Silver Sugar Bowl And Cream Jug, St. Petersburg, 1854

1 800 EUR

Signature : Adolf Sper

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Silver metal

Diameter : 11 & 9.5 cm

Height : 14 & 10 cm

Description

An elegant Imperial Russian silver two-piece tea service, comprising a sugar bowl and matching cream jug, by Adolf Sper artist and crafted in St. Petersburg in 1854.The sugar bowl features a finely shaped octagonal panelled body, raised on decorative floral feet and surmounted by a fitted lid crowned with a delicate bud-shaped finial. The accompanying cream jug displays a harmonious design, complementing the sugar bowl.This refined set exemplifies the craftsmanship and elegance of mid-19th-century Imperial Russian silverware, reflecting the distinguished traditions of Russian silversmithing.Origin: St. Petersburg, Imperial RussiaDate: 1854Period: Mid-19th CenturyMaterial: Solid Silver (84 Zolotnik / 875 Silver)Number of Pieces: 2 (Sugar Bowl and

Dealer

All Centuries
Argenterie
Tel : +37258323965

Tartu mnt 84A
Tallinn 10128

Cream Jug) translate to frenchTotal weight : 783
g