Description

Wrought-iron table with a marquetry top, from Italy, dating from the second half of the 20th century, featuring a circular black marble top. The top is embellished with elaborate floral and foliage motifs, crafted from polychrome marble and arranged in three concentric circles delineated by yellow marble borders. The wrought-iron frame, lacquered in black with gold accents, features ten paired "S"-shaped legs that culminate in elegant scrolls. The legs are connected to the base by crossbars that, joining in the center, form a complex floral and scroll pattern. This example of craftsmanship offers a remarkable balance between sturdiness and decorative refinement, ideal for spaces that call for a piece with strong visual impact.Product condition:Due to its age and wear, this item
