Mahogany Cane With A Silver Pommel, 19th Century

230 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Sterling silver

Length : 91 cm

Diameter : 3 cm

Description

Mahogany cane with a silver pommel featuring a Chinese-inspired motif. Whether imported or made in France in the Asian style, the design features two figures. The knob appears to have been used for knocking--on doors or elsewhere--as it bears traces of such use. Length: 91 cm x 3 cm (knob). The tip is missing; it can be replaced with a copper or rubber tip depending on its intended use.
