PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Panoramic View Of Capri, Oil On Canvas, Signed "ho. Tayeau" And Dated 1840

6 500 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Width : 150 cm

Height : 106 cm

Description

A large oil-on-canvas painting depicting the village of Capri, with its white and ochre houses terraced on the hillside, a domed church and palm trees on the right, a mountainous landscape in the background, the sea, the distant coastline, and a few sailboats on the left. In the foreground are three umbrella pines, agaves, and cacti; two peasant women in traditional dress on a path; and a figure on the embankment to the right. A very beautiful compositionSigned lower right: Ho. Tayeau (reading uncertain; may also be read as Cayeau, an unidentified painter), dated 1840 and located in Capri. Gilded wood and stucco frame with floral and cartouche decoration, 19th century (slight damage) DIMENSIONSWith frame: H. 106 cm / W. 150 cmWithout frame: H. 88 cm / W. 130 cm

Dealer

Galerie Beaulieu

Généraliste

Mobile : 0613903899

Bordeaux 33000